

Grady Price Blount

grady.blount@angelo.edu

Education:

Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, Graduate School of Education, 2005.

Management Development Program Graduate

Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona, Ph.D., Planetary Geology, 1988.

Dissertation: Regional Aeolian Dynamics from Remote Sensing: Origin of the Gran Desierto, Sonora, Mexico

Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas, M.S., Geology, 1985.

Thesis: Interpretation of Shuttle Multispectral Infrared Radiometer Data for a Portion of Trans-Pecos Texas

Corpus Christi State University, Corpus Christi, Texas, B.S. Geology, 1982.

Senior Project: Historical Changes in the Morphology of Corpus Christi Bay since 1540

Professional Memberships:

American Geophysical Union, Association of Mars Explorers, Union of Concerned Scientists, International Dark Sky Association, Sigma Xi (Scientific Research Honor Society), Epsilon Delta Pi (Computer Science Honor Society), Sigma Gamma Epsilon (Earth Science Honor Society), North American NOAA Polar Orbiting Satellite Users Group.

Certifications and Licenses:

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Incident Command Systems (ICS-100) and National Incident Management System (IS-700); Advanced Open Water Scuba license, FCC Third Class Radiotelephone (with Broadcast Endorsement) and FCC Advanced Class radio licensee: KB5MP, Texas CHL (semi-automatic), Texas Class C Driver's License, B.S.A. Northern Lights Council "Trained Adult" certification, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives Type 3 federal firearm license (Curio and Relic Collector).